

Like every year SBMN Ayurvedic College celebrated the 17th Independence Day with great pomp and grandeur. All teachers and students assembled in Ayurveda ground at 7:30 am. The whole campus was decorated with tricolor balloons and flags. The Pro-chancellor ma'am 'Dr Anjana Rao' and the Vice-chancellor 'Dr RS Yadav' invited as the chief guest of the program and other dignitaries of our institute Registrar 'Dr Manoj Verma', Dean Academic Affair 'Dr Naveen Kapil', COE 'Dr M. Singla' Principal 'Dr Ajay Dahiya' and Dean of Ayurveda 'Dr Neeraj K Khare' were also present there to attend that ceremony with full enthusiasm. The chief guests were welcomed with flowers. In the presence of gleeful gathering the chief guest hosted the National Flag. As soon as the flag was hoisted, everyone sang the National Anthem after that the NCC Cadets performed March past with the Indian Flag to pay tribute to the motherland India. Then a cultural program was held in the mini auditorium. Some students sang patriotic songs and some recited poems. Some students also performed dance. Thereafter the chief guest gave inspiring speech. He stressed upon the value of sacrifice, hard work, honesty & character formation as the chief aim of the students. Then vote of thanks done by our principal. At the end, sweets were distributed to the students.
